Journey to Spain: Where Culture and Impact Meet

We have a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity for you to see freedom at work! This package for 4 people whisks you away to vibrant Madrid, where you'll spend 5 nights in a stylish 2-bedroom, 2-bathroom apartment in the heart of the city. Your adventure includes a 3-hour gastronomic walking tour, complete with three delicious food and wine stops—an irresistible way to taste Madrid's famous culinary scene. Then, immerse yourself in Spanish culture with an authentic Flamenco show in a traditional Taberna, paired with a drink to toast the evening. For a touch of history, enjoy a half-day private tour of Toledo, Spain's breathtaking medieval city, with your own guide and private transportation.

But the true highlight is your time with Amar Dragoste, Atlas Free's Network Member in Spain. You'll meet their team, hear firsthand how lives are being transformed, and see the incredible resilience of survivors building new futures. You'll also get the chance to visit a survivor-run business and hear stories during a meaningful dinner, witnessing the power of hope in action. This journey offers the best of both worlds: unforgettable travel and the unique opportunity to connect deeply with the mission of ending sex trafficking.

Must travel by September 2026. Airfare not included. Concierge service available to add extra activities during the stay.
